GolfTEC brings the best in instruction to your neighborhood

MOST OF US ENVISION getting a series of golf lessons at our local muni or club, and that's a great way to go, but Colorado-based GolfTEC offers another convenient way to get the full-service game-improvement treatment, everything from custom fitting to personalized teaching — and, being indoors at a shopping center or stand-alone storefront near you, it's positively weather-proof.

GolfTEC provides customers with a variety of top-shelf services, including detailed and technologically-driven swing analysis, comprehensive instruction on all aspects of the game and finely-tuned club fitting services. Proven to benefit players of all skill levels, GolfTEC works with each individual to create a comprehensive game plan tailored to their specific needs. The company pioneered a step-by-step plan that builds skills faster and provides lasting results. Instructors combine motion-measurement with launch monitors and video analysis for a clear understanding of what needs to be done to improve each player's swing. With nearly 200 locations worldwide and as the largest employer of PGA Professionals, GolfTEC has given over five million lessons. It is a convenient and effective one-stop-shop for every game-improvement need. Lesson packages and clubfitting prices vary. www.golftec.com
